

LESS WATER MORE COLOR

FREE LANDSCAPE TRAINING WORKSHOP SERIES

Join us for a series of free landscape training classes at the Janet Goeske Center.

Saturday, October 26, 2019

Soil-Plant-Water Relationships

Learn about different types of soils and how these affect plant growth and their water needs. The secret to healthy plants lies in understanding this fundamental relationship.

Saturday, December 14, 2019

Pest-Repelling Plants

— Casa Blanca Library • 10AM - 12PM —
Learn about the many types of plants that can control pests in your garden and add beauty as well.

Saturday, January 25, 2020

Planting for Pollinators

Create your very own backyard sanctuary by learning how to provide habitat for pollinators like butterflies and bees.

Saturday, February 22, 2020

Garden Design

Learn how to design a beautiful sustainable garden appropriate for the region's climate.

Saturday, March 28, 2020

Turf Replacement

Learn how to remove and replace your lawn with colorful plants that need 50%-80% less water.

Saturday, May 30, 2020

Irrigation Trouble Shooting

Learn how to identify and fix common irrigation problems. Save money and water!

Workshops are scheduled from 9:30 - 11:30 AM

Register now at: RiversidePublicUtilities.com

For more information, contact (951) 826-5311